

Disclosure: E-Statements

Please take a moment to read these terms carefully and print a copy for your records. The E-statements service is available through Online Banking.

In accordance with the E-Sign Requirement, you have the right to obtain this disclosure in paper format. You may contact our Member Services Department to obtain a paper copy of this disclosure at no charge.

CHANGE IN TERMS

It may be necessary, from time to time, to change the terms or conditions regarding your E-Statement access. In the event such a change is necessary, you will receive an ALERT message on Online Banking to inform you. This will take place at least 21 days prior to the date on which the change becomes effective. In the event an immediate change is required to maintain the security of your account or the Credit Union system, we shall notify you via e-mail within 10 days of making the change.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

NOTIFY US IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR STATEMENTS. If you think your statement is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your statement, write to us on a separate sheet at the address listed on your statement. Write us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR WRITTEN NOTICE.

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the statement was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to send statements for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we did not make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you, write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report to that you have a question about your statement. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is settled.

If we do not follow these rules, we cannot collect the first $50 of the amount, even if the statement was correct.

SPECIAL RULE FOR CREDIT CARD PURCHASES: If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right:(a) You must have made the purchase in your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and (b) the purchase price must have been more than $50.00. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

Write or telephone us at the address listed on your statement as soon as you can if you think your statement receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will recredit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.
